Cafe proprietor for trial

He said he had no recollection of having been barred from the coffee bar. He remembered nothing more until he heard someone exclaim that he was bleeding.

DENIALS

The two friends, also demolition workers—Mr. Graham Morris, of tampton Lane, Hanworth, and Mr. Harborn Lane, Hanworth, and Mr. Richmond—both denied that they all attacked Aloise before he retaliated, yaid that, when Aloise retwent to serve Mr. Costa an argument developed.

Someone handed Aloise a ment developed.

Someone handed Aloise a cleaver, he began to wave it and it struck Mr. Costa. They picked up chairs to defend themselves.

chairs to defend themselves.

Mr. Chapman admitted hitting Aloise with a chair.

Mr. Costa's father, Mr. Leslie Costa, also denied attacking Aloise, but admitted that he broke a window with his foot.

The down with his foot.

Detective sergeant J. Minors agreed with Mr. E. H. Bestford, a feet of the sergeant J. Minors agreed with Mr. E. H. Bestford, a feet of the sergeant of the sergeant

ATTACKED MAN WITH

A CLEAVER'

tell a youth

A Malden father sat at a Sutten aquest on Thursday—his son's like he boy night never walk again.

The father was Mr. Edward arras of Seaforth Avenue, Malaras of Seaforth priember 15.

The inquest was into the death the pillion rider, a 17 years-old itcham schoolboy, John O. oothoo, of Park Avenue, who had ed soon after the collision, from rebral contusions and a fractured

HIT BY SWINGBOAT

Struck on the head by a swing-boat in Elm Road recreation ground, Kingston, on Monday, seven years-old David Webb, of 118, Richmond Park Road, Kingston,

Everyone

fell for

Tanner

RACECOURSE BUILDING We'll buy t

open, say IF the Minister of Housing racecourse, Esher Coun substantial contribution tow substantial contribution tow the land for a public open a riverside amenities. The public linguistic of the public linguistic of the public linguistic for the processor of the public linguistic li

Together with other interested local authorities, Esher would be prepared to buy land near the river, which is part of the Thames flood plain.

POPULATION RISE

The schemes could mean an in-rease of over 3,000 in Molesey's opulation. Car parks, shops, chools and recreational facilities re envisaged.

and they dug

it up again

RIVERSIDE DECIDES

RESIDENTS FIRE FINAL SALVO

COUNCILS OFFER NO OPPOSITION

NAL shots have been fired in local residents' yearold battle against the erection of three seven-storey ks of luxury flats on the beautiful stretch of riverside Albany Park Road, Kingston.

at Albany Park Road, Kingston.

Their strenuous efforts to stop this development came to a head at a two-day inquiry this week. Now they anxiously await the Minister of Housing's verdict, and wonder to what extent the even tenor of life in this quiet backwater will be affected.

Over 300 people in the area view of apprehension the building of the apprehension that the app

A CLEAVER'

A TEDDINGTON man alleged to have been struck in the neck by a cleaver nearly lost his life through loss of blood, it was stated at Richmond magistrates' court on Wednesday. A doctor at the Royal Hospital, Richmond, said that he was bleeding so profusely that it was not possible at the time to examine his wounds.

Ferdinand Aloise (32), a cafe proprietor, of Hill Rise, Richmond, was accused of causing grievous bodily harm to Mr. Anthony Costa.

Dr. M. MacCansill at the Old Dr. M. MacCansill said Mr. Costa was brought to the Royal Hospital shortly after midnight on August 27 with wounds in his neck and left arm, one three inches long.

Mr. Costa, a demolition worker, anything about the attack. With two friends he visited two public houses during the evening They met his faither in Richmond shortly after li p.m. and went to Aloise' coffee bar, Aloise said he would serve the others, but not the said he had no recollection of thaving been barried from the nevitable.

local authorities behis site is appropriate tup instead of out, more think that the Ill fit into the riverside
ing with the lofty trees, ing their own imposing dding their own imposing lamsey Willis represented elopers. George Wimpey Mr. A. N. Munday resurers County Council. Nigel Bridge appeared on a large number of obta the inquiry at County Tuesday and Wednesday, as conducted by Mr. R. see.

NOT TALL

instory of this "battle" that residents recognise re must be some develope; the site, and their main is to its depth but site, and their main is to its depth but they not must go up but they not must go up the they not must go up the they may be the south of the so

"he said.
houses such as have his site go into the marites must be developed intensively than before,
should be no question of land. This is an use for high density and ngs."

NO WASHING'

nkly admitted that the e of the riverside would d, but the 82ft. cedar beeches, elms, and other ld be in a modern set-riverside wall and walk be retained, and also the baracter of this reach of mes, highlighted by the d beautiful gardens, would rved," he said, adding that barning pool would be kept dens planted.

planted.
feature of the flats
he absence of laundry the wind. "This is a mestic point which pffensive, but the disaundry will be cona covenant in the abiting this. Drying to be done, if it is l, within the flats."

all within the flats."

poperance of the river
e altered to advantage
ern setting," said Mr.

illis, adding, "The prees have not made a ntribution to the archiarm of this reach."

Collins, Winney's flats, quiry that when the site
aspected it was obvious

pages

Up t	oday
Cheam	6 and 8
Claygate
Entertainments	7
Esher Ewell
nampton	15
Hinchley Wood	17 and 18
Letters Malden	4
Holesey	13
Money they left	1î
Sport Athletics
Bowls	19
Cycling Cricket	24
Football Golf	24

FLATS: NOW MINISTER

SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 24, 1960

One man and his dog...

THIS is a story with a happy ending, which perhaps would not have been so happy for those con-cerned had not the Surrey COMET taken an interest.
And thereby hangs of tade a hallway house in Ditton road. Surbiton, lived an old age pensioner, Mr. George Wyman, his wife Amelia, and their dog Whisky, For two years they had Whisky, For two years they had because they could not afford to go anywhere else.

1 one time there was some suggestion of them going into an old reason or another, that idea fell through.

to one time going the gestion of them going the people's cottage, but for one people's cottage, but for one people's contage, another, that idea fell through.

Their life was humdrum, but they got a great deal of pleasure from the company of Whisky, a black and tan 12 years-old mongrel, and the great company of whisky, a black with the Gozen or so children with the Gozen or so children who have filtred in and out of the hallway house in the last couple of years.

Bit of a blow

Since number one essee when they were told that they would have to move to in another halfway to move to in another halfway when they were to indeed they the room to the second of the

had been keeping "contrary to wegulations, wegulations, wegulations, with and went to see Mr. Wyman. He told our reporter, "Whisky is our life. He loves us and we love him. I'm told to the life. He loves us and we love him. I'm the life. We have a wear who had to we had to say the least, a bit hard that a man who had fought over the life. We have the life would be suffered shellshock, should be deprived of the little pleasure in his life.

Very friendly

where peeple live on top or each other."

/e offered, "It's an old dog. Very friendly, shakes a paw."

aid Mr. Barclay, "Oh, well. I didn't know it was an old dog. If Mr Wyman likes to come and see me. I will discuss the matter with him."

TYPIST WEDS AT GRETNA GREEN

an.

In it she had packed away all e clothes she dared without cousing suspicion at her home, andra did not go to her office.
She waited on the steps until her

Stuart Danis CAR KNOCKED ON TO

SUSAN HAS THAT OPERATION x years-old Susan Griffith Stoneleigh Avenue, has the third Worcester I come the third Worcester Park child to have had a successful hole in the heart operation in the past six months.

It was the successful to the successful to

THEFT FROM BY-PASS PETROL STATION

There's nothing like a change!

The westher has been in a fickle mood this week, with a little concession to holidaymakers who plump for September as the one month in the year that is likely to be rain-free; been supported by the second of the escapes a company over without spilling a drop, and cold drop, and cold on Tuesday, with temperatures rising to only 54 degrees, and with a minimum of 44 that night it was the coldest since May 31.

It was still cool on Wednesday despite a deal of sunshine, but on Thursday it was warm and close with half an inch of rain in the wieht,

Top cubs get all the badges

An artist's impression of how the flats would look from the Middleser bank.

Tio cub packs proudly informed the SURREY COMET this week that they had sixers who had gained the maximum number of badges open to a wolf cub. Congratulations were offered and photographs of the industrious lads called for, but then there was a query.

The 6th Tolworth pack claimed for the Roystons, Berrylands, the highest number of proficiency badges—15. Berrylands, the might be subject to the similar claim for young Alan Rogers, of 97. Thorn-don Gardens, Stoneliegh, but the number of proficiency with a similar claim for young Alan Rogers, of 97. Thorn-don Gardens, Stoneliegh, but the number of badges mentioned was a first of badges mentioned was a first of the stone of the subject of t re envisaged. Molessoy Chamber of Commerce has decided not to state any official view on Monday because its envisor of the decided in the their open state of the decided in the Society has taken great trouble to prepare its case and will be fully represented.

Alan Rogers.

The society held a public meeting on Thursday at which the position was explained to residents, who were also given the chance to voice their opinions.

Report of the meeting, page 13.

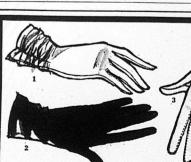

PASSERS-BY stared and motor-ists passing through church Street, Kingston, on Wednesday afternoon could not believe their eyes. For Church Street, year resurraced by the council year to the start of the start year could be start of the start (legar to the start of the start rollers and tar-laying machines which held up traffic for days were removed, two men were were removed, two men were more, up the surface once more, and the start of the start Before angry ratepayers reach tearing up the surface one more. Bury ratespaces reacter that the reacter to the reacter to the should be explained that the should be explained to the should be expla

WATCH OUT FOR DUD CHEQUES

DUD CHEQUES

The state of the s

FASHION at your FING

Nylon 'Simplex', elegantly ruched at wrist; b. lining. Six colours.

2. Soft cape leather lined pure silk. Eight colou

3. Reversed sueded lamb in four colours.

4. Real hogskin, handsewn, pure silk lining.

Crochet backs, cape palms in tan only, and w nylon lining.

