RUSHWORTH and STEVENS are instructed by the Executors of the late H. Revell, Esq., deceased, to SELL by AUCTION, at the Mart, Tokenhouse-yard, E.C., on FRIDAY next, June 26, at One precisely (unless previously disposed of by Private Contract),

THE SPACIOUS FAMILY MANSION, most fashionably situate, No. 85, Eaton-place, built by the late Mr. Thomas Cubitt in the most substantial and first-class manner, and replete throughout in excellent decorative repair, and ready for immediate occupation. It contains three floors of excellent reception rooms, with lofty double drawing-room, spacious dining-room, library, gentlemen's room, large entrance-hall, and principal and secondary staircases. There are in addition three servants' bed-rooms, approached from the kitchen, the whole affording ample accommodation for a nobleman or gentleman's establishment. The stabling is situate No. 85, Lyall-mews West, very near the mansion, and comprises three stalls and a loose box, standing for two carriages, with loft and living rooms over.

May be viewed with orders to be obtained of the auctioneers. Particulars may be had of Messrs. Woolley and Hughes, solicitors, 5, Great Winchester-street, E.C.; and of Messrs. Rushworth and Stevens, 32, Bartlo-row, W.

On the Grosvenor Estate.—No. 11, Upper Brook-street.—A desirable Town Mansion Residence, most eligibly situate between Park-lane and Grosvenor-square, thus close to the Park, with a stabling at rear, in Lees-mews. Possession on completion of the purchase.

MESSRS. DRIVER and CO. are instructed by the Executors of the late Andrew Greene to SELL by AUCTION, at the Mart, Tokenhouse-yard, London, on WEDNESDAY, June 24, at one o'clock precisely, in One Lot,

The above HIGH TOWN RESIDENCE. It contains portico, good entrance hall, three reception-rooms, eight bed-rooms, good domestic offices, and kitchens; with coach-house and stabling for three horses, and rear entrance in Lees-mews. It has been for about 44 years now unexpired at the very moderate rent of £120 per annum.

Particulars of Messrs. Clabon and Wigan, solicitors, 21, Great Queen-street, Lincoln's-inn; of Mr. Bell Cole, surveyor, 7, Cavendish-square; and of the Auctioneers, No. 4, Whitehall, S.W.

Nonsuch Park, Cheam.—Freehold Estate, comprising a valuable and compact Freehold and Tithe-free Manorial Residential Property, with extensive pleasure grounds, and the manor of Lenthrop of Cranley. The annual rental is over £2,000 a year, and the estimated value of the timber is £3,000 a year. Thus the total income is about £4,000 a year. The mansion is a fine old timber-framed and plastered residence, erected in stone, with slated roof, well placed on elevated ground, in noble park, ornamented with fine old timber, and two large pieces of water. It contains hall and inner hall, four capital reception-rooms, and 16 bed and dressing-rooms, with all necessary domestic and outdoor offices. Capital stabling for nine horses; also coach-house, coachman and other accommodation. The estate is divided into convenient farms of good arable and pasture land, with suitable grass land, a large portion being grass, and the arable is barley and turnip land, which lands do not suffer from drought. The farmhouses, &c. The farmhouses and buildings are all substantially built of brick and timber, and are in good repair. The land is all tithe free
